

Greenville Renaissance Scholars Camp Teachers (Art)

Overview:

Do you want to work at a fun and exciting camp this summer? Are you passionate about learning and want to be part of developing the next generation of Delta leaders? Greenville Renaissance Scholars is looking for energetic and innovative teachers for our summer camp. Camp Teachers work with the Camp Director to provide quality programming to rising 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th grade scholars and assist in day-to-day operations. Camp Teachers provide daily instruction in their subject area, develop lesson plans, support GRS programming outside of their subject area, monitor halls during transitions, chaperone at least two field trips, facilitate a small beginning of day group and overall ensure a successful experience for Scholars.

To apply, send a cover letter, resume and three professional references with contact information to samesa.hoskins@gmail.com and acfisherdr@gmail.com. You will be contacted if chosen for an interview. The stipend is $2,000 for one month of service. Must be available to work 12pm-4:15pm Monday-Thursday from June 1st – June 29th, must chaperone field trips on Fridays, and be present for closing ceremony on June 30th.

(*Note: Field trips might be on Mondays instead of Fridays. We will communicate the field trip schedule before summer camp begins)

Responsibilities include:

- Design, coordinate, and provide direct instruction in a form of art to Scholars in a themed summer camp for students that are rising 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th graders.
- Be prepared to work full-time preparing for camp the week before camp begins.
- Coordinate off/on-site trips while ensuring the fun and safety of participants.
- Directly supervise day camp Scholars.
- Ensure the safety and well-being of Scholars at all times.
- Timely submission of curriculum for lessons.
- Facilitate a “club” at the start of each day and have available high-energy, fun, and creative activities to be used during short breaks throughout the day.
- Fill out incident reports (if any).

Qualifications/Requirements:

- Previous experience teaching at least one form of art to students
- Experience working with middle school grade students (preferred)
- Demonstrate leadership experience and skill in planning and directing youth activities
- Flexible, trustworthy, creative, and positive; a leader who works well in teams, is performance-oriented, inspiring, energetic, organized, detail-oriented, communicative, fun-loving, and a good problem solver
